

Health Insurance Coverage for all

Information for the Immigrant Community

Confused about the latest changes to health care and tax laws? Afraid of applying for public benefits because of potential changes to immigration laws?

Join San Mateo County Behavioral Health and Recovery Services and Legal Aid Society for an informative presentation, offered in English and Spanish, on health coverage programs for all immigrants in California.

Already insured? Stop by for the community resource fair, on-site health screening, health insurance enrollment, children's activities, refreshments and more!
