

UNIVERSAL WASTE DISPOSAL

For companies that generate smaller amounts of universal waste the following list provides alternative options for drop off, mail back, or pick up of universal waste. If your company generates large amounts of universal waste, you may consider looking into universal waste management services provided by many hazardous waste haulers. Additional options for universal waste disposal can be found at recyclestuff.org, searchable by waste type and business location. The following partial list serves as a reference only. Businesses listed below are not endorsed by the County of San Mateo. Use of a qualified company not listed here is acceptable.
