7. Member Reports

Commissioner Coppock would like to send a thank you letter to Jean for serving as Chairperson. She requested that Commissioners send her messages they would like included in the letter by Wednesday. She will compile the messages and send to Jean.

Commissioner Leth reported they had 12 focus groups in the past few months in the development of Age Friendly City on the Coastside. The groups were diverse. The next step is to summarize the results and focus on two or three goals that will be sent to the City Council.

Commissioner McMullin reported a new program that is going to be implemented by a couple of Rotary Clubs on the Peninsula partnering with the Village and the City of San Carlos. It is going to be a durable medical equipment loan program. He is going to send Commissioner Lee a description so it can be included in the next Help at Home Booklet.

Commissioner Taylor will bring up the new program at the next age friendly meeting and see if they can start one in Colma.

8. Staff Reports

Lisa Mancini reports that we are at 91% of people 12 and older who have received at least one shot. There is a bit of an uptick in hospitalization cases. We have been hovering around 20 hospitalizations in the past week. Hoping that we can reduce those numbers by opening up vaccinations for children. We have great partnerships with our local pharmacies and local hospitals for boosters. Appointments are preferable but not required. The current percentage does not currently include the 12 and under population.

We have a goal of reaching 80% or greater by December 31st. We are currently at 79.4%. We do have 400 to 500 children in IHSS and are working on vaccinating them. We have 6200 IHSS clients in the County who are being contacted regarding vaccinations.
The county received a certificate from the state for meeting the quality assurance standard of 90% or higher on our annual IHSS reassessment visits. We were actually at 94.5 which is one of the highest in the state.

Anna Sawamura reported that she did receive communications from the County Manager's office regarding the board and commissions orientation and trainings being scheduled. December will not be the month when trainings will be taking place but will happen in early 2022.

County Counsel confirmed that AB361 will still be in effect for the January 10th meeting. We will have that as an action item at the next meeting to continue meeting virtually. It will be a standing item on the agenda.

Providers are doing fantastic work especially during this challenging time.
