

SCHOOL SHARE TABLE AND FOOD DONATION LAWS AND RESOURCES

Schools are legally allowed to share food under federal, state, and local laws, and are not liable if conducted in good faith. San Mateo County schools must coordinate with Environmental Health Services before establishing a share table to ensure all local food safety codes are being followed in an effort to protect the safety of students while sharing food.

