Site Visits Committee
Reported by Paul Nichols

- The idea is we learn more about how we can be an ally, how we can help those 're trying to establish a schedule and a protocol for doing actual site visits. It's not in the vein of doing an inspection or investigation or anything like that. It's more just so that we can learn more about different programs and programs, what they need, what we, how we can facilitate that. And so you know, we'll be reaching out to you to find out.

Director's Report

See attached slides.

- Focused on Youth Services this month; Ziomara Ochoa who is leading this work is very interested in this continuum of care specifically related to crisis
- Starting today Ziomara Ochoa will focus on human centered design to look at what would be the youth crisis of care continuing.
- Working with Telecare closely on logistics/ communication / outreach of 911 vs community-mobile crisis intervention.
- Prop 1: speculating that only 50% of ballots have been filled out statewide; Will take till April 12th before results are certified. Sofia Recalde specifically working to understand fiscally the impact if prop 1 passes.
- Next month: SUD focus for the newsletter

Past issues of the Directors Update can be found here.

Public Comment on the Director's Report

Response to questions:

- State Mandate for mobile crisis team is to provide 24/7/365 coverage. Start-up may be from 3PM-11PM but the full team in August will be 24/7/365.
- Learning from 911's geomapping capability. Ideally the 5 mobile crisis teams will be roving teams.
- StarVista isn't ready to present on the model yet since it is a start-up, but July may be a good time for them to present on their model to educate the public.

- If interested, we can invite Chief Barberini, the lead of the CWRT pilots from the law enforcement perspective to hear about data from the pilot program.
- When CARE Court rolls out, there will be no additional funding. We were able to get some funding to match it, but we know that many services will be billable by MediCal.
