- friendly work plans that various cities in our county have submitted to the AARP. 13 cities have made their own work plan so far.
- CAFE is sponsoring an event on November 12th in Brisbane and there will be a few representatives from some cities that will give updates on their projects.
- Action Item: Review and discussion took place regarding content of letter to Supervisor Canepa requesting representation at CoA general meetings. Motion to approve made by Commissioner Linnell, seconded by Commissioner Uhl. Roll call vote: 10 yes, 2 abstentions: Commissioner Barr and Taylor. Motion passed. Letter will be sent to Supervisor Canepa's Office.
- Chair Lee reports the Chair, 1st Vice Chair, and 2nd Vice Chair positions are open for election for 2026. The Nominating Committee will contact all commissioners and find out whether they are interested in any of the officer positions. The nominating committee will report and make recommendations to the Executive Committee for them to decide how to present the results to the Commission. Elections are open until they happen at the next CoA General Meeting. Commissioners will have a chance to give their nominations and self-nominations before a vote is taken.
- Commissioner Dependahl and Commissioner Uhl will form the Nominating Committee. A motion to approve by Chair Lee and seconded by Commissioner Taylor. Motion passed. The Nominating Committee members cannot participate in an office position for 2026.
- Staff Liaison Anna Sawamura reports that the slate of officers needs to be ready to present to the Executive Committee on November 3rd and election will happen on November 10th at the CoA General Meeting.

Information, Resources, and Community Engagement Committee – Commissioner Owdom reported the following:

 Commissioner Owdom is completing the final review of the Help@Home guide to bring to the subcommittee.

10. Member Reports	 Commissioner Dependahl attended the Behavioral Health Services Act Transition Task Force 4th meeting. It is tasked with reaching out to the community in regard to what services and programs that the county will spend money on from the state funding. It is part of Proposition 1. The task force couldn't name who they met in regard to other adults' program and services. Commissioner Uhl reported that 102-year-old Ed Bordenave received the French Legion of Honor medal for representing the U.S. in D-Day. He currently resides in Westborough Royale assisted living facility in South San Francisco. Commissioner Uhl would like Ed Bordenave to get recognition from the Commission on Aging. David Linnell volunteered to write the letter. The letter will be presented at the next Executive Committee meeting and if approved there, on behalf of the commission it will be mailed. Commissioner Barr reports she contacted her section of the Help at Home booklet, and everyone spoke highly of the Commission on Aging. Commissioner Vico attended the Kaiser Aging Well Summit in Oakland on October 7th. Supervisor Canepa was on the panel presenting on reducing isolation and being more in the community. The Commission on Aging is on the right track on the work being done in the Transportation and Isolation Committee. Commissioner Owdom serves as a Senior Senator on the California Senior Legislature (CSL). On Tuesday, 10/21/25, and on Wednesday, 10/22/25, she will be participating via Zoom all day for the presentation of the pieces of legislation that have been submitted for consideration. They will vote on the top 10, and these will be sent to the real California Senior Legislation for their consideration to move forward. The most recent one that has passed is allowing participation of the commissioner meetings via Zoom. She would like to propose that the Commission on Aging seek another person to serve on the CSL as the Assembly Member representing San Mateo County. Staff Liai
