The Brown Act and the Commission on Aging

The Ralph M. Brown Act, located at California Government Code 54950 et sec., is an act of the California State Legislature, authored by Assembly member Ralph M. Brown and passed in 1953, that guarantees the public’s right to attend and participate in meetings of local legislative bodies.

About the speaker:

Aimee Armsby is Lead Deputy County Counsel for San Mateo County. In that capacity, she advises multiple governing and advisory boards and commissions on compliance with applicable laws governing public agencies, including the Brown Act and the CA Public Records Act. She also represents the San Mateo Medical Center and the Aging and Adult Services division of the County Health System.

Assistive listening devices are available at this meeting. In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Title II (ADA Title II), the County will provide reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities. If possible, please give three (3) days of any accommodation needs by calling (650) 573-3527 (voice) or dial 711 to the California Relay Service for persons who are deaf, or hard of hearing or, speech disabled. For comfort and safety of those who are sensitive to airborne chemicals, please refrain from wearing chemical-based products.
