In Person

Meeting Date and Time: Thursday, January 8, 2026, 3:00-4:30 p.m.

Location: 2000 Alameda de las Pulgas, Room 209, San Mateo, CA 94403

Committee Members Present: Irene Liana, Kathy Uhl

Absent: David Linnell, Liz Taylor, Ophelie Vico

Staff: Anna Sawamura

Via Zoom: Adele Ryono, Bill Long, Margaret Baggerly, Jonathan

The meeting commenced at 3:00 p.m. As there was not a quorum, the meeting served information purposes only.

Sam Trans Report:

Margaret Baggerly announced that the new 2026 Mobility Guide will be available next week. Spanish and Chinese versions will follow in February or March this year.

A new online resource, PeninsulaRides.com, and a tool, "Find My Ride," will be released within two weeks. On-site transportation resources, including one-on-one counseling, will also be available.

Increased public transportation usage noted in PVI and Got Wheels, along with the PJCC Bayside M-F program.

Intergenerational Program:

Adele Ryono shared information on the Ohio Gerontology Conference, noting CoA's support. (Bios for David Canapa and Irene Liana have been submitted). Adele will represent the Youth Commission and her project in person.

Adele collaborates with a Cal Poly professor on aging and intergenerational projects. The intergenerational reading program, "Seniors Reading to Children," will launch at Half Moon Bay Library (Saturday, 03/14) and the following week at Fair Oaks Library.

Member Comments:

Bill Long highlighted personal concerns about transportation connections in South San Francisco.

The informational meeting adjourned at 4:00 p.m.
