

The 19th Annual Housing HEROES Awards Nomination Form

Have you received assistance in securing or maintaining housing? Join us in honoring those individuals by nominating them for the Housing Heroes Award.

Without stable housing, overcoming co-occurring challenges related to substance use, mental health, and primary health becomes an ongoing battle. We encourage you to nominate an individual (such as a landlord, property manager, or case manager) or an organization or program that has made a significant difference in assisting individuals with co-occurring issues in finding or maintaining housing in San Mateo County.
