Director’s Report
Reported by Scott Gruendl, Assistant Director

Public Safety Power Shut Off’s (PSPS)
We experienced a scatter of power shut off s on October 9, 24, 26 and 29. During that time we had between 350-1400 clients affected by the shut offs. The Health System had double that number. Other divisions were dealing with folks who were medically fragile, they were dependent on durable medical equipment that relied on electricity.

San Mateo County Health did a good job with mapping. We have a Public Health, Policy and Planning (HPP) unit that has a group of epidemiologists who created maps during the events to be able to capture which clients and employees were affected by the event. They produced these call list for us that were very effective in being able to pinpoint folks that we thought might need to be engaged or need additional help.

Cordilleras, Canyon Oaks Youth Center (COYC) and Coastside Clinic were all without power during the events. Cordilleras was self-sufficient because they have a large generator. They did lose their landlines but has some cell phone service. We had to take a generator to COYC but once the weather got cold (we did not hook the generator to the heat) we took the youth to the Recieving Home but then the Recieving Home lost power. Coastside was closed for two of the events.

Lessons Learned:
• We learned a lot about medication storage, especially our injectables that require refrigeration. We have developed strategies for medication storage for us and our contractors.
• Things that need to be done when you close a facility due to a power outage. We have to unplug everything before leaving otherwise we run the risk of our equipment being shorted out when the power is restored.
• We learned a lot about communication. At COYC we had to use radios because of the weak cell phone service in the canyon. We also had to use radios for the coast. We had a manager and several employees go door to door to contact about 47 people who we were unable to reach.

Our managers were able to gain leadership experience during the events. We tried to rotate the branch chief, which is normally the director, representing all of mental health services to the Emergency Operations Center. This was a huge financial impact on local government.

Program Presentation
BHRS Data Book
Presented by Scott Gruendl, Assistant Director, BHRS

What is the Data Notebook?
Local Behavioral Health Boards and Commissions are required annually to review program data for local services and report their findings to the California Behavioral Health Planning Council (W&IC 5604.2).

The Data Notebook is the instrument by which the Planning Council collects the data from local commissions and is designed to:
- Assist local commissions with meeting the program review mandate
- To serve as an educational resource for local commissions
- To collect opinions and thoughts from local commissions
- To identify unmet needs and make recommendations

Focus of the 2019 Data Notebook
The 2019 Data Notebook focus topic is an examination of behavioral health services and needs from a perspective of “Trauma-informed principles of care across the lifespan.” Understanding the role of childhood trauma reveals the urgent need for trauma-informed practices in all parts of the public behavioral health system.
The Notebook includes standard data and related questions which are addressed each year to detect any trends. Monitoring these trends help identify unmet needs or gaps in services, which may occur due to change in the population, resources available, or public policy (i.e., eligibility criteria).
