Promoting Social Interactions in Older Adults: Preventing Isolation and Loneliness

Atherton Library
Tuesday, September 24th at 6 - 7:30 pm.

Presented by: Ellyn Bloomfield, RCFE, LGBTQ+ Senior Peer Counseling Coordinator.

Join us to find out how to combat isolation and loneliness with social interactions through programs such as Peninsula Family Services’ Senior Peer Counseling Program.

If you or someone you know is having thoughts of suicide, call 1-800-273-8255 (National Suicide Prevention Lifeline) or 650-579-0350 (StarVista Crisis Hotline).

To register please call 650-328-2422 or come to the front desk. Thank you.

#BeTheOneSMC #ImHereForYou
smchealth.org/SuicidePrevention