Mid-Peninsula Vineyard Christian Church
“Sometimes a church is called a "house of God". We believe the real church is not the building; it is the people who gather there. We are a community of people who love and serve God, each other, and the people around us. You'll find we offer a relaxed, casual environment; so come as you are. We want you to feel at home.”

Online Resources:

California Mental Health & Spirituality Initiative:
This site contains a directory to online resources, scientific literature, and books, as well as an area for announcements and discussion. It also incorporates web 2.0 features by linking to a Google Site that allows you to participate by posting resources and contributing to online discussions. Our hope is that it will become a primary resource on the Internet for people interested in mental health and spirituality.
http://www.mhspirit.org/

NAMI FaithNet:
NAMI FaithNet is a network composed of members and friends of NAMI. It was established for the purposes of (1) facilitating the development within the faith community of a non-threatening, supportive environment for those with mental illness and their families, (2) pointing out the value of one’s spirituality in the recovery process from mental illness and the need for spiritual strength for those who are caretakers, (3) educating clergy and faith communities concerning mental illness and (4) encouraging advocacy of the faith community to bring about hope and help for all who are affected by mental illness.

Mental Health Ministries:
The mission of Mental Health Ministries is to provide educational resources to help erase the stigma of mental illness in our faith communities and help congregations become caring congregations for persons living with a mental illness and their families. User friendly media and print resource that can be adapted to the unique needs of each congregation are available on the website.

Episcopal Church, Diocese of California, Commission on Mental Illness:
Strives to:

- To provide education resources for both clergy and laity, to support people with mental illnesses and their families in our communities. They are our relatives, friends and neighbors; they are us.
- To provide referral to the support and treatment needed for those suffering from these disorders.
- To advocate for justice and cooperation in administrative and legislative bodies, courts, correctional, healthcare, educational systems, and the job market.
- To eliminate the stigma of mental illness.

Yoga, Self-Control and Social Transformation:
Niroga is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that brings Transformative Life Skills to students, vulnerable youth, cancer survivors, seniors and people battling addiction. The work of Niroga directly uplifts thousands of people every week in schools, juvenile halls, homeless shelters, cancer hospitals and rehab centers.

Our programs are part of a cost-effective front-line prevention and intervention strategy for violence reduction, education and mental health, and positive youth development. Niroga also trains minority young adults to become Certified Yoga teachers, prepared to serve their own communities with cultural competence and linguistic sensitivity.
